

Sara M. McDonnell

Project Coordinator

THE CENTER FOR APPLIED ENVIRONMENTAL RESEARCH UNIVERSITY
OUTREACH, UM-FLINT

EXPERIENCE:

2003 – Present, Project Coordinator, Center for Applied Environmental Research, University of Michigan – Flint.

2004, Sanctuary Steward: Big Valley Nature Sanctuary, Michigan Nature Association.

2003, Research Assistant: Earth and Resource Science Department, University of Michigan – Flint.

2002, Conservation Intern, Student Conservation Association.

EDUCATION:

Resource Ecology, Bachelor of Science, 2004
University of Michigan - Flint

AFFILIATIONS:

Flint River Watershed Coalition, Board of Directors

Gamma Theta Upsilon – National Geographical Honors Society

RECENT PROJECT EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Gilkey Creek Watershed Management Plan, 2006.

Defining Community: Conversations from Southern Genesee County,
Film 2007.

Whole Communities: Tools for Local Planning, CD 2007.

$213,000 in Successful Grant Proposals.

RECENT PRESENTATIONS:

Incorporating Natural Resources into Local Municipal Plans, Genesee County Planning Conference, 2007.