

Program in English with a Specialization in Technical Writing (2001-2003 Catalog)

Name _____ Advisor _____ Date _____

Area Options. An area option in a foreign language is required (4 to 8 credits). For the second area option (9 credits), cultural studies, values inquiry, or the foundations of western civilization is recommended.

Area Options 1. Foreign Language (Required) _____ _____
2. CS, VI, WC _____ _____ _____

Requirements. Forty-five credits, as follows:

- A. Twenty-one credits in literature courses to include the following:
- 1. ENG 204 or 205 or 206 or 207
 ENG 241.
 - 2. A course in American or American ethnic literature.
 - 3. ENG 350, or two courses at the 300 level or above in British literature before 1800.
 - 4. Electives in Literature classes
- B. Twenty-four credits as follows (1. And 2. below):
- 1. ENG 345, 391
 ENG 399 or COM 391 developed in conjunction with a technical writing instructor.
 - 2. Fifteen credits from the following groups:
 - a. Written communication (6 credits) from COM 225; COM/ENG 338; ENG 252, 296, 340, 354, 363.
 - b. Visual communication (3 credits) from ART 115; ART/THE 271; COM 340, 342.
 - c. Oral communication (3 credits). from COM 204, 210, 304.
 - d. Linguistics (3 credits) from ENG/LIN 200, 244 (244 recommended).
- C. At least eighteen credits in English at the 300 or 400 level.
- D. Completion of an Individual Major Portfolio.
- E. ENG 400 or equivalent.

Please note:

- No more than 40 hrs in English may be counted toward the total hours required to graduate (excluding 100 level English classes).
- Cross-listed courses taken through the alternate department do not count in the 40 hour rule
- 33 of the 120 credit hours must be at 300 level or above.