The Office of Student Life (OSL) at the University of Michigan-Flint is committed to assisting each student in becoming a successful member of the University community. OSL is broken up into five basic areas:

Major Student Organizations (MSOs):

- Student Government (SG) – Student Advocate and Student Organizations
- Campus Activities Board (CAB) – Student Programming
- The Michigan Times – Student Publications and Media
- Greek Council (GC) – Greek Organizations

Active Organizations (AO):

These student organizations are a part of the OSL and Student Government. Active Organizations receive different levels of resources and benefits, such as listing in publications and the required insurance for a student organization. Within AOs there are three levels of status, each with separate lists of benefits, and they are as follows:

- Active Organization (AO)
- Forming Student Organization (FSO)
- Registered Student Organization (RSO)

Programming and Events

The Office of Student Life provides a comprehensive and diverse menu of activities, programming, and events. Staples of Student Life programming include the Amazing Leaders Workshop Series, TIPS (training for Intervention Procedures) Alcohol Education Program, Fall Welcome, Winter Block Party, 2nd Toast Feast and Form, Step A'Side Greek Step Show, and the President's Ball.
