About Me: Currently I am taking an early childhood graduate course at the University of Michigan-Flint. I have a son who is twelve-years-old and a daughter who is eight-years-old. They keep me busy with all of their sports. I am getting ready to remodel my house in the fall. I have one older sister who lives in Jackson, Michigan. We try to see each other every chance we get. I started at the ECDC in October of 2005.

Research Questions that guide my current work at the Early Childhood Development Center:

- How do I help children develop their fine motor skills so they are prepared for kindergarten?
- How do I provide the optimal environment for children to work out their differences?
- How do I provide successful and inspirational educational experiences for college students and interns?
