

Leyla Sanker

Project Coordinator

THE CENTER FOR APPLIED ENVIRONMENTAL RESEARCH, UNIVERSITY OUTREACH, UM-FLINT

EXPERIENCE:

2006 – 2008, Project Coordinator, University of Michigan-Flint, University Outreach, Center for Applied Environmental Research

2003 – 2006, Research Assistant, University of Michigan-Flint, University Outreach, Center for Applied Environmental Research

1993 – 2004, Office Manager, Women's Health and Serenity

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science in Resource Planning
Minor in Geographic Information Systems
University of Michigan-Flint

Strategic Conservation Using a Green Infrastructure Approach
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Conservation Fund – The Conservation Leadership Network

AFFILIATIONS:

American Planning Association

RECENT PROJECT EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Greenlinks: Assuring Great Places – Green Infrastructure Planning and Implementation in Genesee, Lapeer and Shiawassee Counties

Flint River Corridor Alliance, Administrative Coordination

2007 Capital Improvements Research Study, Genesee County Parks and Recreation Commission

2006 Flint River Trail Research Study, Greater Flint Health Coalition

Responding to the Challenges of Suburban Sprawl in Genesee County

RECENT PRESENTATIONS:

Integrating Trails and Open Space into Parks and Recreation Plans
- 2008 Regional Trail and Greenways Summit, Flint, Michigan

Guiding Growth in Mundy Township, Michigan
- 2006 Applied Geography Conference, Tampa, Florida