EARTH, WIND, FIRE, & WATER

Flint Institute of Art

Explore how artists interact with natural environments in the FIA collection & art making experiences.

Week 4: July 20-24

IT'S SHOWTIME!

Flint Youth Theatre

Campers will experience becoming part of the cast as they work together to bring to life a short show for the other students. Create characters & environments to entertain.

Week 2: July 6-10

THE DANCER IN YOU!

Flint Institute of Music

You'll learn new movements & express yourself in a unique way. Collaborate with others to choreograph your own dance to perform.

Week 5: July 27-31

HISTORY ALIVE

Sloan Museum

Experience Michigan's past & learn about early settlers by taking on pioneer obstacle course, see how lumberjacks lived, & try vintage baseball and other toys. Hear historical tales. Visit the museum amenities.

Week 3: July 13-17

THE SCIENCE SPOT

Longway Planetarium

Investigate what's in the air while exploring air pressure & birds. Make models and dissect in the classroom. Younger kids will build terra-aqua columns & more. All ages visit the Sky Theater & view a Star Show!

Week 6: August 3-7

STORYTELLING STATION

Flint Public Library

New this year, hop aboard the tall tale train as we explore different lands, peoples, & cultures. Enjoy narratives told by peers, counselors, & trained educators. You'll want to come again & again!

Youth Basketball Day Camp 9 a.m. - 12 noon • Monday-Thursday • Cost $80/week

This camp, led by former Chicago Bulls Draft Pick Ervin Leavy, Jr., is designed for kids who want to learn, and improve, the execution of the fundamental offensive and defensive skills of basketball.

Learn basic court strategies and proven basketball principles. Players will learn the building blocks of the game, refine skills, and add to their court knowledge and awareness and have plenty of fun along the way!
