

STRATEGIC PLAN

Values are held as the inalienable rights of all constituents, and are the inextricable elements of the collective will.

The expressed and explicit definitions of the values herein provide evidence of the shared understanding of the values.

As a beacon, the definitions provide guidance to all members of SEHS as they steward the values in the multiple responsibilities of the academic enterprise.