No. 3 | Learning Outcome: Demonstrate the ability to think critically
Narrative: Students will develop further insight into the nature of language through comparisons and contrasts with the grammatical structures of their own language. Students will learn to make inferences about the foreign language studied as well as to make semantic and syntactic decisions in order to produce logical and grammatical sound discourse and texts. Students will also learn to connect new vocabulary and grammatical structures with materials they have already learned in order to facilitate their learning experience.
Assessment tools: Assessment will include quizzes and final exam.

No. 5 | Learning Outcome: Produce competent written work
Narrative: Students will learn to write narratives on their own personal experience and familiar topics in the foreign language. In languages whose writing system use characters, students will be able to produce more complex symbols.
Assessment tools: Assessment will include writing assignments and final exam.

No. 6 | Learning Outcome: Participate in dialogue that involves respectful and careful listening
Narrative: Students will be able to understand questions, statements, and commands and they will learn to respond appropriately in a variety of formal and informal situations by combining and recombining learned elements. Students will also be able to ask formal and informal questions in order to sustain a conversation in the foreign language.
Assessment tools: Assessment will include evaluation of conversations, skits, role-plays, oral presentations, and interviews.

No. 8 | Learning Outcome: Demonstrate knowledge of culture and the arts, social structure and process, and the physical and natural world
Narrative: Since language and culture are seamlessly united, students will continue developing their cultural competency and awareness. Students will develop further insight into the cultures of the foreign language studied through comparisons and contrasts with their own culture. They will gain a deeper knowledge of the cultures as well as the practices and perspectives of the foreign language studied. Students will expand their knowledge about the geography, history, and contributions to art, literature, film, and so on of the foreign languages studied. They will also become familiar with well-known personalities of the foreign language studied from a wide variety of fields.
Assessment tools: Assessment will include evaluation of classroom discussions, cultural projects, presentations, and final exam.

No. 10 | Learning Outcome: Use multiple perspectives and methodologies to analyze real or hypothetical problems
Narrative: Through connections with multiple disciplines such as music, film, literature, and art, students will be exposed to various cultural practices and perspectives of the foreign cultures studied. Students will understand the vast expanse and great diversity in cultures within the foreign language studied. They will also learn to recognize distinctive viewpoints and realize how different cultural phenomena make sense within the context of the cultures where they occur.
Assessment tools: Assessment will include classroom discussions, cultural projects, presentations, and final exam.
