Frances J. Simnitch, RN
Nursing Scholarship

The McLaren Foundation

Frances J. Simnitch decided to pursue a nursing career during her senior year of high school. In 1948, she began working in the Nursery at St. Joseph Hospital in Flint as a nurse’s aide. That same year, she was accepted into the nursing program at St. Mary’s Hospital in Saginaw and graduated in 1951 with a Certificate of Nursing. Frances began her career at McLaren in 1952 in the Nursery where she continued until she retired in 1993. After retiring, Frances joined the McLaren Auxiliary and has dedicated many hours as a volunteer in the medical library, working blood drives and as a patient escort. Frances is always willing to help where needed and is a role model at McLaren and to the nursing profession.
