AGENDA

I. Welcome and introductions

II. Presentation on focused partnership and investment opportunities for creating tangible community impact in strategic Flint neighborhoods

   a. Building Neighborhood Capacity Program neighborhoods
   b. Civic Park neighborhood
   c. ½ mile around UM-Flint campus

III. Discuss the strategic partnership and investment opportunities

IV. Next steps
UM-Flint Representation on City of Flint Task Groups

UM-Flint currently has 16 representatives across six of the seven task groups focused on supporting the implementation of respective chapters of the Imagine Flint Master Plan. The seventh task group may have UM-Flint representation soon.

UM-Flint representation on the implementation task groups is as follows (* indicates that the individual will be coordinating the task group):

Arts and Culture
   o Janet Haley, Theatre Faculty o Andrew Morton, Theatre Faculty

Economic Development and Education o Scott Johnson, Dean of School of Management o Stephen Miller, Student o Keith Moreland, School of Management Faculty

Environmental Features, Parks, and Open Space o Mona Munroe-Younis, Office of University Outreach Staff * o Kurt Neiswender, Earth and Resource Science Faculty o Samantha Tate, Student

Housing and Neighborhoods – representation being pursued o Drew Marsh, Student, is exploring the possibility of joining Infrastructure and Community Facilities o Brad Mikus, School of Management Graduate Student Instructor o Victoria Morckel, Earth & Resource Science Faculty o Robert Widigan, Student

Public Safety, Health, and Welfare o Elizabeth Collardey, Social Work Faculty * o Keshanda Jones, Public Health & Health Sciences Staff o Lindsey Tarrant, Public Health & Health Sciences Staff o Bill Webb, Vice Chancellor of Business & Finance

Transportation and Mobility o Weiqi Li, School of Management Faculty