Hear Chimamanda Adichie’s TED Talk “The Danger of a Single Story” and know your media version of Africa is very often a stereotype.

Read her book Americanah and meet her in person this September as she visits our campus.

Can an Egyptian medical doctor raised as a Moslem be one of the fiercest Socialist Feminists alive?

Read her novel Woman at Point Zero and judge for yourself.

Nawal El Saadawi

Why did Alice Walker coin the term WOMANISM? And how is it the same or different from FEMINISM? Read her novel The Color Purple.

This course will connect the dots of the African experience in Africa & the Diaspora while discussing patriarchy, classism, racism and other issues of concern to women.

Dr. Pat Emenyonu