NEW CAREER EVENT CONNECTS STUDENTS WITH INTERNSHIPS AT TOP FIRMS

First impressions are everything. We have all heard this saying before, yet how many of us take a moment to recognize the gravity of it? Build Relationships.
Gain Experience.

The Corporate Case Competition brings together undergraduate and graduate students from across campus. Student teams work to develop and present a viable solution to an issue currently impacting corporations on a global level. This competition is open to all students and provides participants with a chance to build cross-cultural relationships, gain professional experience, and most importantly, participate in a real-world case study to analyze and develop a global business solution.

Apply Business Concepts.
Secure Employment.

Considering today’s increasingly competitive job market for current students, taking advantage of experiential learning opportunities is becoming almost as important as a degree itself. The Corporate Case Competition provides an excellent way for students to gain these experiences by networking and connecting with representatives from industry and professional organizations. It is through these collaborations that the Corporate Case Competition translates the knowledge, theories, and research that you as faculty and staff have bestowed upon them, into real-world experience that can make a difference in society.
