Instructions for the Application for Graduate Lifelong Learning or Guest Admission

Who may submit this application form?

Students who have a bachelor's or master's degree and wish to take graduate courses without being formally admitted to a UM-Flint degree program should complete this form. This includes those who are graduate students at another accredited college or university who wish to take courses as a guest student.

Who is considered an exception?

- Students entering their final semester of study at UM-Flint who wish to take a graduate course in the same semester are not Lifelong Learning students but can request to take a graduate course following the policy outlined on <http://www.umflint.edu/graduateprograms/admissions/undergraduates.page>.
- Current graduate students in a Rackham program at Ann Arbor or Dearborn wishing to take a course in a Rackham program at Flint use a Rackham Guest Application, not this application.
- Current graduate students in a Michigan college or university participating in the Michigan Intercollegiate Graduate Study (MIGS) program use the MIGS application available from their home campus or from the Rackham Web site.

General Policies

Read the policies regarding Lifelong Learning and Guest admission in the University Catalog or the Graduate Programs Web site at <https://www.umflint.edu/graduateprograms/admissions/lifelong-learning.page>. Please note that graduate Lifelong Learning students are not eligible for most sources of financial aid.

Steps in the Application Process

- Submit application materials to the Office of Graduate Programs, University of Michigan-Flint, 303 E. Kearsley St., Flint, MI 48502-1950:
 - Application for Graduate Lifelong Learning or Guest Admission* [can be faxed to (810) 766-6789]
 - A transcript with bachelor's or master's degree posted (copy of transcript or diploma is acceptable for most programs. The School of Management requires submission of an official transcript to take any MGT or ACC courses). * Guest students may substitute a current transcript from their home institution showing completion of graduate courses.
 - Applicants whose native language is not English must demonstrate English proficiency. Visit <http://www.umflint.edu/graduateprograms/admissions/international-english.page> for more information.
 - Guest applicants must submit approval (via a memo or email to graduate@umflint.edu) from their advisor of their current graduate program.
- The Office of Graduate Programs will review materials and issue an email and letter of admission.
- Once admitted to the university, you must contact the academic department or program that offers the course to get a registration override. Once the override is issued, you may then register for the courses for which you were approved. You will register using the Student Information System (SIS) during the open registration period. After the open registration period has ended, you must register by submitting a registration form to the Office of the Registrar.
- International Students: If admitted and you need an I-20 document for purposes of securing a visa, you must submit certification of financial resources adequate to provide for all expenses while attending the University of Michigan-Flint. Visit <http://www.umflint.edu/graduateprograms/admissions/international-financial.page> for more information.

*A student in his/her final semester of undergraduate study at UM-Flint who wishes to elect a graduate course for the following semester as a graduate Lifelong Learning student must submit a memo from his/her academic advisor stating when all degree requirements for the baccalaureate degree will be completed as well as a signed Statement of Understanding.
