- A maximum of six* semester hours of approved graduate level courses may be requested for transfer out of an accredited institution authorized to grant master's degrees where a grade of "B" or better was earned for each course. Credit will be transferred only upon: (1) completion of this form; (2) receipt of a current official transcript from the institution out of which the credit will be transferred; and (3) approval of the Rackham program director or chair.
- Courses will not be transferred if: (a) the student's overall cumulative in-residence G.P.A. is less than a "B" (3.0); (b) the course was taken more than five years before beginning the current Rackham master's program; (c) a grade below a "B" was earned; (d) credit(s) were used, in whole or in part, to fulfill requirements for a bachelor's or other degree or certificate; (e) they will be used, in whole or in part, to fulfill requirements for any degree in the future; or (f) they were extension or continuing education courses.
- Transferred courses will not carry the grade or honor points to the Rackham record. Thus, it will not affect the student's cumulative GPA .

*Unless from another U-M school/college. For more information, visit Rackham Academic Policies: <https://rackham.umich.edu/academic-policies/section5/>
